CONTENTS OF VOL. VII

	PAGE
A Christmas Carol	41
A Legend of Elsinore—A Ballad	64
Aspiration	143
A Plea for Quinces and Quince-trees	203
A Word for Men's Rights	208
Abu Hamood's Mule, and the Cedars of Lebanon	264
About Pear-trees	390
A Talk about Popular Songs	401
April	427
A Child's Wish	524
A Visit to my Grandparents	525
An American's Adventure in Pegu	561
Annie at the Corner: the History of a Heart	629
Calhoun on Government	90
Cyclopædia of American Literature	170
Chester	254
Circe—A Story of Paris in the Eighteenth Century	284
Chicago in 1856	606
Dead Leaves	574
High Life—At the North Pole	138
How I Courted Lulu	347
Have Animals Souls?	361
High Life—On the Mountains	584
I and my Chimney	269
Kingsley's Poems	532
Low Life—In the Pampas	55
Living in the Country	166, 295
Lewes's Life of Goethe	192
Life and Character of St. Augustine	225
Mr. Prescott's Philip the Second	50
My Wife and I	169
Macaulay's History of England	255
My Mission	294
Nathan Hale—The Martyr Spy of the Revolution	476
Napoleon Bonaparte as a Family Man	511, 614
Owlcopse—A Story of Reform and Reformers	80, 125, 240
On the Pier	283
Our Sea Coast Defense and Fortification System	314
On a Picture of Beatrice in Paradise	464
Our Relations with England	540
Our Light-house Establishment	644
Progress of Religious Ideas	76
Parson Field's Experience	420
Religious Freedom in America	337
Robert Browning	372
Ruskin's Writings	490
Scampavias	73, 382, 483, 600
Sonnet	137
Snip-Snap	304
Some Oriental Acquaintance	415
Scenes in the Western District	501
The Rain	19
The Ghost—A Christmas Story	20
The Virginia Springs	42
The Falcon	49
The Ring	124
The Romance of Crimean History	144
The Philosophy of Punning	154
The Ranger—A Ballad	174
The Haunted King and the Loaded Dice	177
The Malakoff Marseillaise	313
The Gentleman's Shawl	301
To the Rev. Mr. ——, Lines composed in Sermon Time	346
The Sky is a Drinking Cup	360
The Rain	371
The Ocean Depths—A Diver's Tale	386
The Sculptor of Albany	394
The Real Question	428
The Kane Relief Expedition	449
The Apple-tree Table; or, Original Spiritual Manifestations	465
The Iconoclast	489
The Spirits in 1692, and What They Did at Salem	505
The Demon of Music	539
The Counterfeit Coin	576
The Rise of the Dutch Republic	592
William Shakespeare and his Plays—An Inquiry concerning them	1
Whip-Poor-Will	77
Washington at Boston—Sixty-six Years ago	113
What the Voice said to the Student	393
Young Love	575

Editorial Notes, 101, 214, 326, 435, 546, 659.

American Literature and Reprints.—Pliny Miles's Postal Reform—Wilson's Mexico and her Religion—The Moral and Intellectual Diversity of Races, by Gobineau, Hortz, and Dr. Nott—Dr. Hare's Investigation of Spirit Manifestations—Lewes's Life of Goethe—Dr. Griswold's Poets and Poetry of America—Reed's Lectures on English History—Mrs. Sarah J. Hale's Library of Standard Letters—Talfourd's Life and Works of Charles Lamb—Harper's Classical Library—Watson's Xenophon's Anabasis and Memorabilia, and Edwards's Cicero—Caste, a Story of Republican Equality—Lily-Wood's Modern Pilgrims—Widow Bedott Papers—Mrs. Wirt's Flora's Dictionary—De Quincy's Klosterheim—Sterling's Onyx Ring—Duganne's Poetical Works—Bayard Taylor's Poems of Home and Travel—A Batch of Children's Books—Cranch's Last of the Huggermuggers—The Mysterious Story-Book—Out of Debt, out of Danger—Bears of Augustusburg.

Publishers and Critics—Allibone's Critical Dictionary of English Literature—Read's House by the Sea—Songs and Ballads of the American Revolution—Walter Savage Landor's Writings—Cousin Veronica, by Miss Wormley—Ravelings from the Web of Life—Blind Girl of Wittenburg—Amy Lee—Lily Hudson—Glances and Glimpses—Life of St. Bernard—Olmsted's Seaboard Slave States—Miss Murray's America—

Squier's Central America—Dr. Kane's New Book—Wells's Year Book of Agriculture—Willis's Church Music—The Criterion—The Crayon—The Home Journal—Frank Leslie's Illustrated Paper—Rufini's Dr. Antonio.

Novels—Edith; or, The Quaker's Daughter—Lanmere—Wolfsden—Home—The New Purchase—Dreams and Realities of a Pastor and Teacher—Early Greek Romances—Napoleon's Confidential Letters—Life of Jeffrey, by Lord Cockburn—The Attaché in Spain—The Day Star—Life of Washington, by Washington Irving—Grace Greenwood's New Volume of Tales—Woman's Faith—Creole Orphans—Lost Hunter—Natty, a Spirit—Zoe—Sumner's Speeches. Travels.—Ewbank's Sketches of Brazil—Jarves's Parisian Sights and French Principles—The Kansas of Mr. Green—Mrs. Ferris' Mormons at Home. Philosophy.—Schwegler's History of Philosophy—Mr. Tappan's Elements of Logic. Science.—Elements—Analytical Mechanics, and the Spherical Astronomy—Annual of Scientific Discovery—Gosse on the Ocean. Miscellaneous.—Mackie's Life of Schamyl—Fourth Volume of Poe's Works—Maginn's Shakespearian Papers—Dr. Raphall's Jews—Young's American Statesmen—Barnard's Journal of Education.

A Perceptible falling off of "Sensation Books"—What is Likely to take their Place? Our Young Writers—A few Words as Hints—Appleton's Cyclopædia of Biography—Literary Criticism, and other Papers, by the late Horace Binney Wallace—Dr. Gilman's Contributions to Literature—At Home and Abroad, by Margaret Fuller—Liberty and Slavery, by Professor Bledsoe—List's National System of Political Economy—Ida Pfeiffer's Second Journey—The Madeira of Mr. March—Lieut. Brewerton's Kansas—Bohn's Libraries—Smyth's Lectures on the French Revolution—Beaumont and Fletcher—Defoe's Works—Memoirs of Philip de Comines—Motley's Dutch Republic—Harper's Classical Library.

European Literature—England.—Burton's Pilgrimage to El Medineh—Help's Spanish Conquest of America—Rogers's Table Talk. 442.

Art Matters.—The End of the Opera—What Mr. Paine did for Us—The "Italians" at Paris and at New York—Fiorentini—Pozzi—Carrion—Evenardi—Angelini—Borghi-Mamo—Zucchini—Mme. Lagrange—Miss Hensler—Mlle. Nantier Didiée—Salviani—Brignoli—Rovere—Amodio—Rio Janerio robbing New York—The Ravels—Pantomimes and Theatricals—"False Pretenses" and our Best Society—Juvenile Comedians, what they should do, and what they should not—Christmas Gifts—"Books of Beauty," and Beautiful Books—Illustrated Poems—Tennyson—Keats's Eve of St. Agnes—Birket Foster's "Allegro," and "Penseroso"—Mr. Darley's "Margaret"—A word for Hiawatha—Pictures: Scott and his Contemporaries—Landseer's "Shepherd's Prayer." . 110

The Opera.—Mr. Paine—Banks and Richardson vs. Meyerbeer and Rossini—Mr. Paine in Boston—What Boston did for Mr. Hackett—Of Lagrange, Hensler, Salviani, and Didiée—Arditi's New Opera, The Gipsy—Jenny Lind once more in America—Now in London—Madame La Marquise de Candia—Drury Lane—Madame Alboni—A New Opera Buffa—Fiorini—Concerts with Us—The Philharmonic—Mr. Gottschalk—Rachel leaving Havana—King Charming and the Blue Bird—Pocahontas—A New Piece at the Français—Jaconde—The Varieties—Le Royaume des Calembours—London, and the Cloth of Gold—The Theatres—Cold Terms—Mr. Brougham—Mr. M. Vickar—Mrs. Bennett—Barrow's Comedies—A Burlesque on Don Quixote—Blondel—A Child's Theatre—The French Gymnase des Enfants—Boston Importation of Sculpture by the Ton—A Grand Museum of Antiquity at New York. 222

The World of New York.—March, a Blusterer and a Nuisance—A Herald of Spring—The Cold and the Ills it brings—The Charms of Winter—A Christmas Dinner—Christmas Around the Register—A Hole in the Floor—Lord Palmerston's Definition of Dirt—Snow in New York and Snow in the Country—The Streets, their Appearance—Snow-clad Roofs—Two Weary Months—Welcome is March, Harbinger of Spring—Our Opera House—Madame Lagrange—Philadelphia and Boston—Miss Hensler—Brignoli—Rovere and Didiée—Arditi's New Opera—Rossini and Meyerbeer—Our Philharmonic Concerts—Classical Berlin—Old Print of Albert Dürer's—Mr. Bristow—Gottschalk—The Varieties—Wallack's—Burton's—The Broadway—Miss Keene—Mr. Lenton—Duke Humphrey's Dinner—She Stoops to Conquer—Mr. Walcot—An American Comedy—Mdlle. Rachel in America—Private Theatricals—Good Pictures in America—Our Sculptors—Engravings after Cole's Voyage of Life, by James Smillie. . 331

The Past Winter—Our Highways—Broadway like the Boulevards, Paris—"Was the Fact"—Our Grandmothers—A New England Legend—Winter's Tale—Burton, Miss Laura Keene, and Wallack—Mr. Walcot—Knights of the Round Table—Heir-at-Law—Poor Plays and Poor Actors—Their Fault—What is Needed—Craving for Amusement—The Academy—Astor Place—Clinton Hall—Mr Curtis's Lectures—Cordial Criticisms—Crawford's Beethoven "Inauguration" in the Music Hall of Boston. 445

A Welcome to May—The Ancient Holiday—Rustic May—May in the City—May-day—May in the Country and on Broadway—Winter Gone—The Ball Room—Lord Melbourne—The "Ball for the Nurses"—Our Opera House—Signor Arditi—"The Spy"—Brignoli—Hensler—Lagrange—Mr. Paine—Maretzek—The Ravels—Our Theatres—The Lecturers—Miss Keene—Mr. Wallack—Miss Louisa Howard—Mr. Burton—That Blessed Baby—The "Imperial Prince" of the French—A Layette—The Dramatic Fund Dinner—Judge Daly—The Academy of Design. 553

Summer at last, and a Pleasant City—The practice of "Emptying" the Town—A few Years ago, and those who then "went into the Country"—A Change—And is it for Health?—Monotony is the Mother of all Manner of Mischiefs—The true Mode of Summer Enjoyment—To the Few already Wise—June has Come, etc. 659